

AWARDED GRANTS

The Open Society Foundations work to build vibrant and inclusive democracies whose governments are accountable to their citizens. The vast majority of the grants made by Open Society are to organizations, but we also award a limited number of grants to individuals through fellowships offered across a number of different programs.

Grant and fellowship opportunities

About this database

Filter by: Amount ▾ Region ▾ Year ▾

5 GRANTS FOUND

	Year	Amount
▼ EU DisinfoLab Description: to provide general support Term: 2 years Region: Europe and Central Asia Funder: Foundation to Promote Open Society	2023	$500,000
▶ EU DisinfoLab	2022	$300,000
▶ EU DisinfoLab	2021	$200,000
▶ EU DisinfoLab	2020	$150,000
▶ EU DisinfoLab	2018	$208,100

Subscribe to updates about new grant opportunities

Your email address

Also send me the latest on Open Society’s work around the world

By entering your email address and clicking “Submit,” you agree to receive updates from the Open Society Foundations about our work. To learn more about how we use and protect your personal data, please view our privacy policy.

VOICES

Read the latest from our staff, grantees, and partners about how we’re working around the world to build vibrant and inclusive democracies whose governments are accountable and open to the participation of all people.

Learn more

HOW WE FUND

Every year the Open Society Foundations give thousands of grants to groups and individuals that work on issues we focus on—promoting justice, equity, and human rights.

Learn more

WHO WE ARE

- Our History
- George Soros
- Leadership
- Board of Directors
- Financials
- Policies and Notices
- Offices

HOW WE WORK

- How We Fund
- Grants and Fellowships
- Awarded Grants

WHAT WE DO

- Where We Work
- Themes

Events

Newsroom

Publications

Employment

Contact Us

© 2025 Open Society Foundations, some rights reserved.